JOB OPPORTUNITY: INDIGENOUS CAUCUS DIRECTOR

This position is open to people inside and outside the IAMC-TMX organization. Please feel free to share with your networks.

This is a contract position to March 31, 2025, with a possibility of an extension for the subsequent fiscal year(s).

The Indigenous Caucus (the Caucus) of the Indigenous Advisory and Monitoring Committee for the Trans Mountain Project seeks a collaborative leader with an appreciation for the diversity of Indigenous perspectives on natural resource development, and the ability to identify strategic opportunities, communicate clearly, and build consensus to advance common goals and interests.

The Director will work closely with the Caucus, the communities impacted by the project, government/regulator partners on the Committee, and others to advance shared goals of safety, protection of the environment, and respect for Indigenous rights and interests on the Trans Mountain Expansion project (TMX) and existing pipeline.

Responsibilities of the Caucus Director:

The Caucus Director is responsible for ensuring that Caucus delivers on its roles and responsibilities, as outlined in the Committee Terms of Reference and elsewhere, and to shape and implement the strategic direction set by the Caucus and which is guided by the priorities identified by the 129 impacted communities. The Caucus Director oversees and coordinates the workplan and budget to support the Indigenous Caucus.

Reporting directly to the Chair of the GAFSC, and responsible to the whole of Indigenous Caucus, the Caucus Director is charged with the effective and efficient management, coordination, implementation and reporting of activities associated with the Indigenous Caucus.

Qualifications:

- Minimum 5 years of experience in a leadership role, preferably in a community-based or non-profit organization
- Minimum 5 years' experience overseeing financial and fiscal management
- Strong understanding of the priorities and challenges faced by Indigenous communities impacted by TMX
- Excellent communication, facilitation, and consensus-building skills- Commitment to fulfilling the Indigenous Caucus' mission, the interests of the main committee, and the priorities of the 129 Indigenous communities
- Ability to inspire and motivate others

Education:

Completion of post-secondary education (bachelor's level) in a relevant field or equivalent combination of experience and training acceptable to the Caucus.

Other:

1. Ability and willingness to travel regularly within BC and Alberta.
2. Preference may be given to Indigenous candidates

How to Apply

Interested candidates are asked to express their interest to the Caucus. An expression of interest must include:

1. Application Letter. The letter should describe:
 1. Your understanding of the IAMC-TMX, its goals, objectives and guiding principles;
 2. Why you are interested in serving the Caucus; and

3. What you offer the Caucus, highlighting relevant experience, knowledge, and competencies.
2. Complete CV. The CV must include your past employment history and education or training.
3. Partner Experience, if applicable. If you work as part of a firm or with partners, provide a description of the experience and capacity of any other resources available to the Caucus via this relationship.
4. Disclosure of past work experience on TMX. You are asked to disclose past work experience (direct and indirect) on the Trans Mountain Expansion Project or existing pipeline with Kinder Morgan, Trans Mountain Corporation, and/or its contractors.
5. Compensation. Please outline your rates or expectations.

Please send your expression of interest to info@iamc-tmx.com no later than November 15, 2024. Thank you in advance for your interest.

With gratitude,
IAMC-TMX
